Sermon 1: Prophet

Scripture: Hebrews 1:1–3 (CSB)

1) God is a speaking God (v. 1)

- God has always initiated communication _____
- God spoke “_____” to meet people where they were
- Our biggest issue is often not God’s silence, but _____

2) Jesus is God’s final and clearest Word (v. 2a)

- “In these last days” = God’s plan has reached its climax
- God’s clearest Word is a Person: _____
- Everything before Jesus was _____ toward Jesus
- If Jesus is God’s final Word, His voice is not optional

3) Jesus speaks with unmatched authority because of who He is (vv. 2b–3)

- Heir: everything belongs to Him
- Creator: He made the universe
- Revelation: radiance of God’s glory, exact expression of His nature
- Sustainer: holds all things together by His word
- Savior: made purification for sins
- Reigning Lord: sat down= _____, established authority

4) Jesus is the Prophet...are you listening to Him?

- Being around His voice is not the same as being under _____
- Warning signs:
 - selective obedience
 - delayed obedience
 - information without transformation
- What listening looks like:
 - _____ His word with humility
 - _____ His word even when it confronts you
 - _____ the next right thing
- Two invitations:
 - come to Jesus (salvation)
 - come back to listening (renewed obedience)
